MASON COUNTY MEN OFFERED TRAINING BY FEDERAL BOARD

Eight Mason County Veterans Are Entitled to Special Training By Federal Board of Vocational Education.

The Federal Board for Vocational Education is having remarkable success in retraining disabled veterans of the World War who are no longer fit for pre-war occupations. The board trains disabled men in any occupation or profession for which they are mentally and physically fitted. The trainees are placed in the best schools, colleges and industrial establishments and are trained until capable of accepting a position. If necessary the training covers a period of four years. At the completion of the course a position is secured for the man, and he is kept on the Government payroll until it is certain that he will make good. While in training the men receive an allowance from $1,000 to $2,000 per year, and all transportation, tuition, books, tools and training supplies are paid for by the board.

In order that married men may take their families to the place of training, the pay for men with dependents is larger than the pay for the single men without dependents. If the men desire, they are trained at or near the place of residence. The men are not under military control nor do they have to sign up for any certain period of time. They may cease training whenever they desire.

Their compensation from the War Risk Insurance Bureau does not stop except during the time they are receiving training pay. When the man is discontinued or is retrained the compensation is resumed, if the disability still exists. The following men of this county are entitled to this training and it is expected that they will shortly take advantage of the Government's most generous offer:

William O. Lucas, Maysville.
John Lykins, Maysville.
Rafael Linville, Sardis.
Leslie B. Clifford, Sardis.
Grover C. Frederick, Mayslick.
Thomas B. McCann, Springdale.
Joe Johnson, Maysville.
Wm. Rice Chann, Maysville.

THE LEAGUE IS AN INSTRUMENT OF FORCE

Again, they arrest that all the great minds of the world His Holiness Pope Benedict XIV, Cardinal Gibbons, and other great thinkers and church members are for the Wilson League of Nations. Whether it is that they have said this so often, that they believe it themselves, or whether it is for the purpose of sheer, brazen, deception, we cannot say, but we know that these great thinkers have never approved the Wilson League of Nations. The Wilson League of Nations is based upon "force" otherwise why do you find scattered throughout such words and expressions as "military forces," "armaments," etc? It does not require Solomon to know that these terms mean "force." It is true that many of the great men of the world are in favor of the confederation of nations based on "Charity and Justice," two cardinal virtues which are not even on speaking terms with the Wilson League of Nations. And not only have these great thinkers and church men including His Holiness, made it clear that they would favor the League or Confederation of Nations based upon "Christian charity and Christian justice" and the benign teachings of our Blessed Redeemer, and that universal brotherhood which recognizes our Divine Savior as at once its author, its teacher, and its Divine exemplar, but they have just as clearly disapproved of any League of Nations based upon "force" as "force" means in its last analysis, either abject slavery or absolute extinction.

POLICE CHIEF ISSUES HALLOWEEN WARNING.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort this morning issued a warning against marking property on Halloween. The notice follows:
Maysville, Ky., October 29, 1920.
Owing to the numerous complaints received of children under 16 years of age, writing upon buildings, windows, walls and fences with soap, chalk or other substance is in violation of an Ordinance prescribing a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars, parents of children who violate this Ordinance will be held responsible and prosecuted upon a warrant in the Police Court.

IRELAND AND THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Again, we are told the war was fought for "self determination of all nations." England is the mother of the League of Nations, she has been a member of the League of Nations since its inception nearly two years ago. The Irish people more than a year ago under an election held by English officers under English law voted by more than eighty per cent of the people for self determination. Ireland proper, according to Robert Lynd, literary editor of the London News, and one who declared himself to be "ultra-British," is authority for the statement that Ireland had 250,000 sons fighting for England—a greater number than either Canada or Australia supplied. Of course, these men believed that they were fighting for independence of small nations, as well as for the British Empire. (Sunday Visitor, Oct. 24, 1920). It will hardly be denied that the Irish race, the world over, as a race, contributed as much, if not more, than any other race of people to the winning of the war, which Mr. Wilson called a war of "self determination." Yet notwithstanding all of this, and the fact that it is conservatively estimated that more than ninety per cent of the present population of Ireland is aggressively and unflinchingly for "self determination" read the treatment now being meted out in Ireland to those who did so much to "make the world safe for democracy."

America being non-partisan, ably edited, religious journal in its issue of October 23, says:
"Ireland—Last week was one of fire and blood. On October 11, Arthur Griffith issued the following list of outrages perpetrated by the British since January 1, 1919: murder of unarmed civilians including women and children 77; towns burned and sacked 102; armed assaults 1,604; arrests and imprisonments 4,982; armed raids on private houses 38,720. Immediately after this revelation, as if in answer to it, Lloyd George's threat of sterner measures was put into effect. Military blockades were established in a number of towns and people were intercepted and searched. On the same day the Government declared that all trainmen refusing to work would be court martialed, and night raids became more murderous and detailed. St. Kieran college, at Kilkenny, was entered and the president, the professors and students were ordered out of bed. Rooms and dormitories were searched without effect. A Brothers' school and numerous private houses were raided and apparently, for the first time, women were subjected to the brutal treatment that the British press has been attributing to the Bolsheviks. Three priests were arrested and many people were murdered or wounded. Thus, for instance, on October 13, soldiers from Dublin barracks wrecked twenty-five ships and were then attacked by armed citizens. This incident occasioned the death of four people and the injury of thirty others, all victims of the indiscriminate fire of machine guns. Rioting and deaths were frequent in other parts, too of Ireland."

INTEREST GROWS IN TRIP TO BOOST FAIR

Many Business Men Report That They Will Go On Trip to Boost Corn And Tobacco Fair.

The movement to have a boosters' trip throughout this section of Kentucky and Southern Ohio has met with more approval from the business men in general than anything that has yet been suggested in connection with the big annual Tobacco Fair.

Several local business men called at the Chamber of Commerce this morning and reported that they were ready and anxious to go on the trip taking their machines for two or three days if necessary to make the rounds of the Ohio and Kentucky counties. Practically all of the advertising matter is here now and it is being prepared for the trip, which will probably be the week following the election.

The sale of booths for the fair continues and as yet no canvass for their sale has been made. There is no question but that all of the booths will be promptly taken and arrangements for the big displays can be laid out and planned weeks before the fair opens. The catalogues will be published this week and distributed just as quickly as possible.

$50,000 DAMAGES ASKED OF TRACTION COMPANY FOR DEATH

Administrators of the Estate of Mrs. Judith A. Rice Filed Suit at Lexington Asking Damages of Kentucky Traction Company.

Messrs. W. H. Rice and T. J. Rice, sons of Mrs. Judith A. Rice, of this city, and administrators of her estate, filed suit in the Fayette Circuit Court at Lexington Thursday asking damages in the sum of Fifty Thousand dollars ($50,000) from the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Company for Mrs. Rice's death.

Mrs. Rice was killed on October 2 on the Lexington and Georgetown pike when an automobile in which she was riding was struck by an interurban car. Mrs. Rice with others was driving from the home of her daughter onto the pike and in crossing the interurban track, the machine was struck by an electric car which was said to have been moving at a very rapid rate of speed.

COX'S VARIED ROLES

By SCOTT C. BONE

At "one" with Woodrow Wilson and for Wilsonism and all it implies, without reservation, yet beseeching a weary, tax-burdened country to elect him President. That's Candidate Cox.

An exponent, for campaign purposes, of progressive thought and lofty ideals, yet nominated and backed by Boss Murphy, Boss Brennan, Boss Taggart and Ed Moore! That's Candidate Cox.

Wettest of the wet aspirants for President, save Edwards, by Bryan's appraisal, in a Democratic Convention dominated by the wets, yet now endeavoring to convince an arid country that he is dry and ever has been a dry! That's Candidate Cox.

Charging that a corruption fund of $15,000,000 was being raised to buy up the Presidency, and then, at safe distance from the seat of inquiry, raising the amount to $30,000,000, yet without producing an iota of evidence in support of his wild charges. That's Candidate Cox.

A machine-made politician, vouched for by Tammany, yet pretending to have been given the light in 1912 as a disciple of Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson! That's Candidate Cox.

Arraigning the press for not taking him seriously by printing his speeches, yet knowing, as a newspaper man, that the cost of print paper under this Administration is too high to give space to mere words! That's Candidate Cox.

Crying out against a mythical "Senate oligarchy," because the precious Wilson covenant failed of ratification, yet with full knowledge that hostility of Democratic Senators rendered ratification impossible! That's Candidate Cox.

A mild, dodging critic of Burlesonism and Palmerism, when confronted by hecklers out West, yet committed unqualifiedly to Burlesonism and Palmerism by the Democratic platform! That's Candidate Cox.

An apologist for the sinking of the Lusitania, a pacifist of the Newton Baker stripe as clouds gathered, and intervening on behalf of a rich slacker when war came on, yet today appealing for the support of American sons who went to the front! That's Candidate Cox.

Dry to the drys, wet to the wets, spirituelle to the spiritual, all things to all crowds, in the face of the G. O. P. landslide clearly impending, yet never daring to deviate in his devotion to Wilsonism or the Wilson League by the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t"! That's Candidate Cox!

And, finally—an acrobatic Ajax defying the lightning of public disapproval! That's Candidate Cox.

"The Wires are Already There—"

Sometimes, when folks order a telephone, they say: "It won't take you but a few minutes to install it, because the wires are already on the house."

BUT—

The circuit from the house all the way to the telephone exchange is the one that really counts—

That circuit is released—used for some other subscribers—when a telephone is removed.

Another must be built up for you before your telephone can be installed, and that takes time and work—

That is why it takes longer than "just a few minutes" to install a telephone—because there is a great deal more to do than simply to fasten the instrument on your wall!

ELECTION RETURNS

DEMOCRATIC HOPE TO FOOL PEOPLE PROVES FAILURE

The Republican Party in Kentucky has one thing to be thankful for, and that is the fact that Kentucky men and women are too intelligent to be blinded by cheap Democratic propaganda.

Unwilling to come out in the open and face the real issues, unwilling to take a manly stand on the League of Nations, unwilling and unable to defend its candidates and its party record, the Democratic machine has tried everything imaginable to fool the people.

It has already claimed that a vote against the Democratic Party would be a vote against "our boys who died in France." They even had the nerve to use that beautiful poem, "In Flanders Field," in an advertisement appealing for Cox votes. It has tried its best to connect this election with prejudice, sentiment, petty dislikes—anything to get away from the unpleasant facts. But all in vain, thanks to the intelligence of the people!

And now they are trying to claim the church and all religious activity as the sole property of the Democratic Party. That recent headline in a leading Democratic newspaper, "Churches Lining Up For Cox," is proof of this statement.

The first movement along this line was in Louisville several weeks ago, when a minor Democratic candidate made a speech before the Ministerial Association and said "no man can guide my spiritual welfare who is against the League of Nations." This aroused the indignation of the ministers, and one of them arose and shouted: "No man can make such a reckless statement as that can by my vote be helped into Congress."

This was followed by another meeting of the Ministerial Association, at which a speech was made by the Rev. W. O. Carver, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Dr. Carver pictured the League, "not as a promoter of peace, but rather as a breeder of wars." He argued the League from a scriptural point of view and contended that proponents of the League are "trying to substitute a man-made article for peace which can only come through the Prince of Peace."

One reason for his opposition to the League, Dr. Carver said, was that "God was left out of the covenant entirely, out of the instrument and out of the proceedings at which it was framed." Dr. Carver pointed out that many of the European nations are in constant turmoil, and said "even at this time with the League in force are wars going on overseas."

In answer to the claim being made by some that the League has been endorsed by various religious bodies, Dr. Carver said that only one denomination had taken any action endorsing the covenant. He said that boards or committees of other denominations may have endorsed the League, but that only one denomination has placed its stamp of approval on the document as brought back from Paris.

The discussion by Dr. Carver was declared by some of the ministers present to have been one of the clearest and most logical talks on the League they had heard. So enthusiastic were some of the members that a motion was made to have the speech published in full in the Western Recorder, a denominational weekly published in Louisville. In the excitement and enthusiasm at the conclusion the motion was overlooked and adjournment was taken without action upon it.

It is known that there are a number of the leading Baptist ministers in the city who are and always have been Democrats, but who will not support Governor Cox in November. One of the leading pastors said recently that he "had been a Democrat all his life," but declared this to be "one time when he will vote the Republican ticket."

A few days ago a Democratic newspaper printed a misleading story making it appear that Gypsy Smith, world-famed revivalist, who is conducting a revival in Louisville, is for the League. This was met with a storm of indignant protest, and the following article, published in the Herald, shows how it was met by Mr. Smith:

"I have not come to Louisville to meddle in politics. I am here to conduct a revival. Please do not draw me into any political controversies," said Gypsy Smith last night, when asked concerning an "interview," appearing in the Louisville Times yesterday.

Mr. Smith was quoted in the Times as having said "If the League of Nations prevents one war, it proves its right for existence."

Gypsy Smith was asked last night, "Do you believe the League of Nations will prevent one war?"

"I do not. I believe that only the Prince of Peace can prevent war and that peace will come to the world through Jesus Christ only. I am in favor of any movement that will bring peace to the world," he said.

Many Louisville persons commented yesterday on the use that had been made of Mr. Smith's name in connection with the present political campaign. Mr. Smith himself showed painful embarrassment over the incident.

CAN'T you almost hear them "sigh" with relief as you free them from the torturous shoes? Don't they "say" they could hardly have stood another hour of such discomfort? Do you know you can secure shoes that will enable you to go all day long without unduly tiring your feet, without making them ache or cramp? NATION DEMANDS THOROUGH CHANGE.

Chicago, Oct. —If one were required to name a single factor which is doing more than any other to work toward Republican success in November, he would probably have to say: Determination of the public to have a change and to get away from Wilsonism.

Reports from all quarters tell of this feeling, at once a desire for a change and a determination to bring it about at the polls November 2.

Whether it be from the central west, the far west, the east or the south, the reports tell of this seeking for a change. The desire for a change is born of dissatisfaction, dislike and disgust felt by the voters toward the Wilson administration and the things it has done and left undone.

Mr. Cox is looked on as a man who if he were elected would follow the track of Mr. Wilson. In fact, he has declared himself in "complete accord" with Mr. Wilson.

The public, by all accounts, is not looking for a man who will go along with Mr. Wilson or the Wilson policies.

MRS. CARRIE BREWER, Proprietress.

Senator Harding, observation leads us to believe, has created a strong impression of earnestness, sincerity and high sense of duty. His utterances are marked by a studied moderation; he exhibits no arrogance of opinion, and has made no extravagant promises of a millennium to be created by propaganda; he seeks rather to express the national spirit than to impose a doctrine of political infallibility. And there is an unmistakably a growing view that Governor Cox is a shifty opportunist, superficial in thought, reckless in appeal and irresponsible in statements.—Philadelphia North American.

LEADERS ON THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

History tells us that Caesar, having thrust before him the plot for his destruction, carelessly brushed it aside failing to read it. Will you make the same mistake Caesar made, or will you read this?

What does Article X of the Wilson League of Nations mean? Will your boy and your boy's children have to fight in all the wars of the world? Here are the facts, decide for yourself.

The article provides "the members of the League undertake to preserve the territorial integrity and existing political independence, of all members of the League."

The Republican reservation to this article provides "the United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country by its military or naval forces."

President Wilson says this "cuts the heart out of the League." Senator Root in his speech in New York a few days ago says "Unquestionably that (Article X.) is an agreement to go to war in case external aggression against any member of the League be of such a character that was is necessary to repel it."

"I think it most objectionable that American people shall enter into a solemn and positive agreement to guarantee and maintain by force of arms for all time the dispositions of territory and sovereignty which these four men made in the year 1919. That is a part of what Article X undertakes to do."

Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, one of the ablest Democratic Senators of the country says just after the Maine election: "The paramount issue is to avert disaster; nobody favors the League that understands it."

"The women of Maine have read it. It is no wonder about the women. It is no marvel about the mothers. They are not willing to mortgage the pound of flesh nearest their hearts."

"They are not willing to sign this bloody bond which is a first lien upon the life of every boy beneath the Stars and Stripes."

Senator Reed, Democratic Senator of Missouri said in Kansas City a few days ago "I do not know what you will do. But as for me and my house, we will never surrender the rights of America. We will never mortgage the blood of American sons. We will never pull down the American flag."

Senator Lodge in his speech in New Jersey just made says: "Under the Constitution the Congress alone can declare war, and yet under this alliance called a league the President would have power to involve the country in war before Congress could act. It is no reply to say that this is an inconceivable case, that such a thing would never happen."

"Such a thing would be very likely to happen if we continued Mr. Wilson in the White House or any of his heirs or assigns. Moreover as a broad general principle, there never should be an opportunity for one man to have the power to put the country into such a war as the covenant of the League submitted by Mr. Wilson contemplates. Wholly apart from the provisions of the treaty, it would be more than possible as the covenant of the League now stands for our soldiers and sailors to be sent to war without the assent of the representatives of the people in Congress."

Twenty-three of the Democratic Senators, more than a majority of the Democratic representation in the United States Senate, voted against the Wilson League and in favor of the Republican reservation. Thirty-four Republican Senators in the United States formed the reservations and voted for them and against the Wilson League.

If you are a Democrat, are you not willing to accept the judgment of the majority of the Democratic Senators including your own Senator Beckham, and vote against the Wilson League of Nations as they did under their official oath in the United States Senate?

If you are a Republican, are you not willing to accept the wisdom of thirty-four of your Senators in the United States Senate voting under their official oath, against the Wilson League of Nations?

All the foregoing men were in immediate touch with the Wilson League of Nations from the moment of its first publication to its final rejection in the United States Senate. It was their duty to act upon it, they heard every argument for and against it, from start to finish. They were familiar with everything that touched it, they were voting under their official oath. Will you accept the construction given to the Wilson League of Nations by a lot of ad-libbers, frenzied, anglo-maniacs, fanatics, who have less natural aptitude than you yourself, have no better sources of information than you yourself, and many of whom, would not know a Wilson League of Nations if they met it on the street, rather than the verdict of the United States Senate voting with full information, under their official oath, or will you be led by the fanatics, and believe that twenty-three Democratic Senators and thirty-four Republican Senators committed official perjury?

The conclusion is irresistible, that any fair minded American who considers these facts and is fair to himself "and fair to his country, must upon his conscience vote against the Wilson League of Nations, and Mr. Cox, has said time and time again that he is "heart and soul" for the Wilson League of Nations. Can you doubt your patriotic duty?
